

ether

a space where people meet

meetings • functions
conferences • events

ether, defined as the space in which everything happens, is a unique and relaxed space to meet for conferences, meetings, functions and events.

Nine different rooms offer modern design and furnishings suitable for a variety of purposes, from intimate boardroom meetings to large cocktail parties.

Comfortable lounge chairs and ottomans, combined with aboriginal artworks, decorate the pre-function area and create a relaxed space ideal for mingling before or after an event.
